MRS. HOPE IS PRAISED

Mrs. R. L. Fite, chairman of the women's bureau of the state democratic committee, met with women democratic leaders of Poutotoc county at the court house Tuesday afternoon in the interest of forming a club for forwarding party interests here.

Mrs. Fite spoke complimentary of the work of Mrs. Tom Hope as chairman of the democratic committee in this county. She is the only woman chairman in the state, it is said, and her efficient work has caused much favorable comhas caused much favorable com ment over Oklahoma.

ment over Oklahoma.

Mrs. Fite, in a conversation with a representative of the News, said women would help make politics better. She is of the opinion that men who are not worthy and are not doing their duty in public life will be sent back to private life without delay. She says there is plenty of good material in the democratic party and there is no need ocratic party and there is no need to go out of the party to get the

Buy Your Christmas Presents at This Sale and Save Just Half of What It Will Cost You During the Holidays. Bargains Will Go With Every Fall of the Auctioneer's Hammer. COME EARLY—DON'T MISS IT!

SALE STARTS SEPT. 15-10 A. M.

STORE WILL BE CLOSED TIGHT SEPTEMBER 14 TO GET READY FOR SELLING EVENT!

This is a bad time for a jeweler to put on an auction sale—with the Christmas shopping season almost at hand—but I am compelled to sacrifice a great part of my stock new in order to get the cash to meet my obligations.

We are all in the same boat—farmer, laborer, bank clerk, merchant and every man engaged in business of any kind—and must pay alike for the reconstruction days or months ahead.

It is no longer a question of profit—but a fight for existence and I stand ready to take my loss in one grand dose and be through with it.

If you can use anything in my store, you can have it at your own price. Just tell the auctioneer what you are willing to pay and buy it under the hammer.

A dollar in cash right now is worth ten to me later—and I have instructed the auctioneers to sell mercilessly until there is enough money in the cash drawer to pay every dollar that I owe.

My stock is consedered among the finest in the state, and my diamond assortment is the greatest in the south, outside the larger cities, and they will all be placed on the auction block in this sale.

All of our new stock of silverware, pearls, cut glass, and watches are now in the house and they will be offered at whatever you are willing to pay at auction.

If you intend giving Christmas presents—buy them now and you can buy many with the money it would take to buy one later.

All phonographs and records will be sold and this is your chance to own yours for a song.

If you have a few hundred dollars that you care to invest at this time, you can not do better than buy diamonds at this sale, put them away for a while and as soon as conditions improve, cash in your investment at an enormous profit.

Diamonds are absolutely the best investment in the world today—and even at regular prices you cannot go wrong in buying on today's nuwket. You are safe in taking my tip raid buy all the diamonds you can pay for while this sale is on. Remember that I am going to remain among you, and full every article you buy at my anction is POSITIVELY GUARANTEED TO BE ENACTLY AS REPRESENTED BY THE AUCTIONEER.
